6. Module # 6 “Publishing”

Important Instructions:

Please note, all general enquires and student updates will be conducted by the Acepreneur Administration Team. All completed modules will be individually marked and reviewed by Ali Ash (Founder, CEO and Head Coaching Strategist) as well as him providing each student with detailed feedback. However, this will be conducted in accordance with an estimated date as per Ali’s schedule, which will be contingent upon the number of students enrolled in each course.

This is a self-paced course and intended to work at your own convenience, availability and learning curve. Thus, each module can be completed at your individual discretion.

Once you have completed a module, you must then submit it for reviewing, customized marking and focused feedback by Ali Ash himself.

Please email your completed work to: acepreneur@gmail.com with the name of the module in the subject line.

Acepreneur aims to provide your marked module in one working week from the next working day, from the date of submission. This is to accommodate various international students with different time zones enrolled in the program. However, if you have any particular deadline kindly let us know and we will do our best to accommodate you.

If you experience any writing related issues, writers block or require one on one assistance, kindly let us know and we shall arrange a relevant time slot for Ali Ash to contact you directly in order to help you.

The Acepreneur Team welcomes you onboard and appreciates your passion for the written word and the glory that beckons to be discovered therein.

We would like to conclude by wishing you all the best through your journey within the elite Acepreneur Mentorship Program.

See you on the other side ----- Bigger, Better, Stronger! 😊

Yours sincerely,

- Acepreneur – Ali Ash
- Acepreneur Administrative Team
